Cuban Embassy visits Dundalk to forge links with local companies

Dundalk Chamber hosted another very successful Embassy visit when Cuban Embassy came to Dundalk to meet local companies in order to forge business links.

H.E. Dr. Hermes Herrera Hernández, Cuban Ambassador visited Dundalk Wednesday 16 September for a series of one-to-one meetings with various companies from around the North-East. This is just one in a series of many visits which Dundalk Chamber has organized.

Dr. Hermes Herrera Hernández was delighted with the number and variety of contacts and were sure that the visit would enhance trade in both directions. He also stated that a representative from the Cuban Embassy would be delighted to visit Dundalk in the future to meet with more companies in the hope of forging business links between Ireland and the Republic of Cuba.

Due to the success of the meetings, Dundalk Chamber will play host to more Embassies in the near future, including the Lithuanian Embassy which will take place on the 18th November in Oriel Hub in the Finnabair Business Park.

If your company would like to attend one of these free meetings please call Karolina or Elaine in Dundalk Chamber on 042 9336343 or email projectadmin@dundalk.ie
