Taiwanese Embassy visits Dundalk to forge links with local companies

Dundalk Chamber hosted another very successful Embassy visit when Taiwanese Embassy came to Dundalk to meet local companies in order to forge business links.

Mr Frank Chih-Ming LIN – First Secretary of the Taipei Representative Office in Ireland visited Dundalk Wednesday 1st February for a meeting with various companies from around the North-East. This is just one in a series of many visits which Dundalk Chamber has organized.

Mr Frank Chih-Ming LIN was delighted with the number and variety of contacts and was sure that the visit would enhance trade in both directions. He also stated that a representative from the Taiwanese Embassy would be delighted to visit Dundalk in the future to meet with more companies in the hope of forging business links between Ireland and Taiwan.

Due to the success of the meetings, Dundalk Chamber will play host to more Embassies in the near future, including the Ethiopian Embassy which will take place on the 22nd February 2017 in Louth Local Enterprise Office, Louth County Council, Town Hall, Crowe Street, Dundalk, Co. Louth.

If your company would like to attend one of these free meetings please call Malvina in Dundalk Chamber on 042 9336343 or email projectadmin@dundalk.ie
