Polish Embassy visits Dundalk to forge links with local companies

Dundalk Chamber hosted another very successful Embassy visit when the Polish Embassy came to Dundalk to meet local companies in order to forge business links.

Mr Robert Bąk – the Secretary of Trade & Investment Promotion Section of the Polish Embassy visited Dundalk on the 6th of September for a series of one-to-one meetings with various companies from around the North-East. This is just one in a series of many visits which Dundalk Chamber has organized.

Mr Bąk was delighted with the number and variety of contacts and was sure that the visit would enhance trade in both directions. He also stated that a representative from the Polish Embassy would be delighted to visit Dundalk in the future to meet with more companies in the hope of forging business links between Ireland and Poland.

Due to the success of the meetings, Dundalk Chamber will play host to more Embassies in the near future, including the Russian Embassy which will take place on the 25th of October 2017 in Louth Local Enterprise Office, Louth County Council, Town Hall, Crowe Street, Dundalk, Co. Louth.

If your company would like to attend one of these free meetings please call Marta in Dundalk Chamber on 042 9336343 or email office@dundalk.ie
