Dundalk Chamber Business to Consumer Expo a huge success!

Dundalk Chamber in association with Bank of Ireland and Local Enterprise Office Louth showcased some of Louth's finest businesses at the Business-to-Consumer Expo in the Marshes Shopping Centre on Friday the 18th May. The event was free to attend and had over companies from all sectors exhibiting on the day.

This fantastic one day event showcased what is great in Louth with a wide range of products and services all under the one roof. It was opened by Frank Ryan Chairman of IDA and Enterprise Ireland.

There was a number of Embassies down on the day and they met local companies and members of the public including the Argentinian and Romanian. Exhibitors included travel agents, food companies, gyms and much more.

Many of the stands ran special offers on the day and LMFM gave out prizes on the day donated by stand holders. The event created a huge buzz and will definitely be in the diary next year.
