

Webinar on North-South Post Brexit Business Supports

Press release

26th April 2021

As part of its Work and Skills Week initiative the Department of Social Protection organised a "North-South Post Brexit Business Supports" Webinar in conjunction with the EURES Crossborder Partnership on Friday 23rd April from 10am to 11am. The event was to raise awareness for businesses in both the North and the South with regards the incentives, schemes and supports that are available to them from various organisations to help business growth post Brexit. There was also key information to help businesses build and maintain North South trade links, and a HR consultant relayed important legislation changes for businesses post Brexit.

The event had 5 speakers:

Deirdre Maguire - Intertrade Ireland
Michael Tunney - Local Enterprise office
Orla Rafferty - Orla Rafferty Consulting
Barbara Gibson - Dept for Communities
Pat Farrell - Dept of Social Protection

257 employers registered for the event with 150 logging into the Webinar on the day - the remainder had stated they couldn't attend the Webinar at that time but wanted a recording of the Webinar to be forwarded to them.

The event was hosted on the webinar platform of Dundalk Chamber of Commerce. The Department of Social Protection are most thankful to Dundalk Chamber of Commerce for the use of their webinar platform to facilitate this large scale webinar. Dundalk Chamber of Commerce are also a member of the EURES Crossborder Partnership.
